BeChanida A. (b. 1974)

BeChanida (b. 1974, Bangkok, Thailand) is an expressionist painter who developed through years of hearing what the heart truly desires. Now unbounded, the artist recaptures a playful and curious energy through her quick gestural brushstrokes in harmonizing complimentary hues. An inexplicable spontaneity in each gesture places the abstraction and draws a narrative of renewal in each layer.

She narrates her reflections, recollections, and emotional experiences into the physical world of visual poetry through a myriad of mediums, expressing that which cannot be put into words. Her range of subjects have expanded from a series of portraits to encapsulated emotions and fragments of condensed impressions. Her journey from an art enthusiast to a fully-fledged artist has led her to several group and solo exhibitions—and a chance for quiet conversations between the painter and the viewers with feelings and thoughts that transpire from spontaneous self-expression and conceptual narratives. BeChanida's practice involves an expressionist method of quick brush strokes and splatter motif to elicit emotions and invite the viewers into the expanding space of her imagination and artistic psyche.
